

Information related to Victoria Trinko by Judith A Prince.

When leaving my car parked outside this summer with a strong Northwest wind, I would have to use my windshield washer and wipers to remove sand that had accumulated on my windshield. This did not happen prior to the construction of the Chippewa Sands Mine.